Clippings from the Richmond

Papers.

The Dispatch mentions the arrival of Senator Foote north of the Potomac,

and says: "Let us hope that Mr. Foote will go to England; the United States is in no need of his services. He will find good, heart-broken exiles in Great Britain, who would like to hear from their country. He can give them the latest news, especially upon one point which vitally touches their sensitive nature—whether sequestering in England means sequestering in the Confederacy."

The same paper mentions the visit of

Mr. Singleton to the Lobby Prison, who expressed himself highly pleased with its condition. It mentions the arrival of a large lot of suits and boxes for the Federal prisoners.

The Examiner says: "The House of Representatives has passed the Senate

bill to provide for the employment of

free negroes and slaves to work upon

fortifications, &c."

It is understood that the nomination of Gen. Lee will be sent into the Senate to-day, to fill the vacancy created by the death of Gen. Lee.

The Richmond Dispatch of the 30th

not be reappointed to the Senate for approval."

On the 27th Gen. Hardee telegraphed

I also dressed a wound on a man called Brennan. It was about an inch deep and could have been made by an instrument similar to the one with which McHugh was stabbed. I should think both cuts were made with a single-edged knife.

FRANKLIN WRIGHT SPOKE.

I was in Ken's saloon last Monday night. I went there between seven and eight o'clock. I had been there a few minutes when I saw a man with a gun. He was dressed in a suit and was looking at the people in the saloon.

COUNCIL MEETING.

Salary for the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department.

Discussion of the Bounty Question.

The City Council held a regular meeting last night, all except Ald. Steele being present.

A communication was received from James P. Allen, acting forth that he was recruiting for Company G, Heavy Artillery, that he had twelve men who were not credited, and could fill the quota of two Wards in a week, if $50 City bounty was granted to him, as it already had been to Harvey Officer.

The communication was laid on the table.

The Finance Committee reported adversely to the request of the Comptroller for $100 increase of salary, and the report was adopted.

The Committee on the Fire Department reported in favor of allowing the Chief Engineer a salary of $200 per annum. The report was adopted.

A resolution was adopted granting $50 to the Chief of the extra services in preparing bounty bonds last summer.

Ald. King offered a resolution authorizing the payment of $100 City bounty to recruits. After a lengthy discussion the resolution was amended, making the bounty $50, and payable to recruits for Harvey Officer's company.

The resolution was then laid on the table and the Council adjourned.

A resolution having been adopted several weeks since offering $100 bounty to recruits for Harvey Officer's company, the passage of this resolution as amended would have made no change.

THE SANITARY FAIR.

A handsome donation from Senator Hamner.

The following letter from the Secretary of the Sanitary Fair, explains itself:

St. Paul, Feb. 8, 1895.

Since the last formal report of this Committee, the following letter, with enclosed valuation, has been received:

The money has already been placed in your hands, and I herewith send you $73.25, the balance obtained by this Committee; and in closing our books it is gratifying to record that except $7.50 the money subscribed has been actually collected, so that it may truly be said that the "promise to pay" of the citizens, as regards the Sanitary Fair, is as good as the cash in hand.

Very respectfully,

Mrs. Wm. J. Smith,

Sec. Sanitary Fair.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30, 1895.

My Dear Sir:

I have advised Mr. Joseph Lewis to pay to the Treasurer of the Sanitary Fair, to be held at St. Paul, on and after the 9th January, one hundred dollars on my account.

I trust the Fair may prove a great success.

Very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

ALEX. RAMSEY.

Mrs. William Smith,

St. Paul, Minn.

"The Haymakers" were greeted with a crowded house at the Atherton last evening. We are compelled to defer comment until tomorrow, further we are sure that every one wants to read and see them again.

I dressed the wound of some man who was called Brennan. It was about an inch deep and could have been made by an instrument similar to the one with which McHugh was stabbed. I should think both cuts were made with a single-edged knife.

FRANKLIN WRIGHT SPOKE.

I was in Ken's saloon last Monday night. I went there between seven and eight o'clock. I had been there a few minutes when I saw a man with a gun. He was dressed in a suit and was looking at the people in the saloon.

THE METEOR.

ANOKA, Minn., Feb. 8, 1895.

The above diagram represents more fully the meteor, as seen in this vicinity.

When first noticed it was not more than 10° above the horizon. The size appeared double that of our largest planet. In color, it was silver tinged with rose. At 30° it began to shoot out and throw off its trail. These scintillations continued to fly off until the material seemed exhausted, burned out, leaving the trail about 40° in length. It vanished near the meridian, 45° high, like a plain rock. I heard no report, nor saw anything to indicate an explosion. The course was west-southwest. It did not appear very distant from the earth, the smoke indicating, perhaps, two thousand feet elevation.

The glories of the dawn were unusually fine previous to its advent, but when this brilliant auroral messenger appeared in the scene, the beholder was filled with wonder and admiration.

THE HAYMAKERS

Successful Rendition of an American Opera by St. Paul Amateurs.

The rendition of the Operatic Cantata of the Haymakers, was witnessed on Tuesday evening, by perhaps the largest audience ever assembled within the walls of the Alhambra.

The performance of an American Opera, entire, in full costume, with orchestra and stage accessories, by the musical talent exclusively within our midst was of itself an event so novel as to ensure a lively interest, even in our somewhat exacting and fastidious community. Public expectation had been excited by rumors of ambitious preparation; so that we were safe in pronouncing this the musical "revel" of the season.

It would be too much to claim for such a performance, under the most extenuating circumstances, entire immunity from just criticism. But, whatever may have been thought of individual portions, we believe the unanimous verdict of the audience is, that the performance as a whole was a most gratifying and unlooked for success.

The author's conception certainly a very beautiful one. As the narrative suggests, it embraces those rustic incidents and sweet pastoral scenes which we instinctively associate with our ancestral homes and which are linked with the hallowed memories of childhood. With scarcely a plot sufficient to afford a denouement, the simple incidents succeed each other with such pleasing variety that the interest of the spectator is fixed to the end.

We think the performers achieved the greatest success when there was most ground to apprehend failure. From the "musical talent among us, a good number of success in the rendering of vocal solos, we, to be expected, but when, as much difficult combination and arrangement were necessary, we think the performers fairly surpassed all expectations.

The choruses, with all exceptions, (those of the Fireman's song and the "storm chorus") were given with sweet and true harmony and much power; and as to these exceptions, the fault was more owing to confusion in the time, than to defective harmony. The vocal arrangements were thoughtfully and excellently made, and the harmony maintained throughout, between the vocal and instrumental performers, was truly admirable.

The vocalists, with the exception of the soprano soloist, were all amateurs, and their performance was a credit to the city. The instrumentalists, with the exception of the piano soloist, were all amateurs, and their performance was a credit to the city.

THE CASEY-M'WHUGH MURDER.

Commitment of Cornelius Casey.

Cornelius Casey, (brother of Joseph Casey), was brought before Judge McMillen last evening for examination on the charge of participation in the murder of Joseph Casey.

The examination of Casey was held in the examination of Joseph Casey as the testimony in this case. Quite an argument ensued upon the question of committing the prisoner without bail. Justice McMillen concluded to commit him, though he stated that he presumed the District Judge would grant him bail.

A justice, however, cannot grant bail where the crime requires imprisonment of seven years or over. We understand this prisoner will be brought before Judge Wilkin on a writ of habeas corpus, and an effort made to secure his release on bail.

SECOND WARD DRAFT ASSOCIATION.—There will be a public meeting held at the Court House this evening at 7 o'clock. Come out every honest citizen of the ward and pay your money and we will yet avoid the draft altogether.

The Executive Committee has passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That the names of all persons liable to draft in the Second Ward who have not subscribed on or before the 12th day of February, 1895, to the draft fund of said ward, shall be published in the daily papers, and an effort made to secure his release on bail.

Heavy Storm—Prognostic.

SUNDAY, Feb. 8.

A heavy snow storm prevails. It is not cold or windy.

Mr. Tullin, Assistant Superintendent of the Lake Shore Railroad, has been appointed Superintendent of the Western and Central Railroad west of W. R. Chittenden promoted to General Superintendent.

A letter from Savannah says: "Speaking of subjugation, Gen. Sherman has a very terse way of meeting this difficulty. To a proud lady who said to him, 'General, you may conquer, but you cannot subjugate us,' he replied, 'I don't want to subjugate you; I mean to kill you, the whole of you, if you do not stop this rebellion.' To another who wanted to know of him how long the war would last, he said, 'Well, well,' in his rapid, earnest manner, 'I don't know; perhaps six or eight years, and then twenty or twenty-five years of guerrilla warfare long enough to destroy this whole generation, and then we'll begin again.' In this way he dashes their arrogance, right and left, to the winds, and they leave his presence utterly confounded, and at last, with due respect to the Yankee General."

Baptized.—On Sunday last three persons—one gentleman and two ladies—were baptized in the city of St. Paul, in front of the church, by Rev. Mr. Craven, of the Baptist Church. The ice had to be cut away for the purpose. A large number of friends visited the ceremony. —Large Church Record.
